

Lucky Leaf Gardens

see East Map

Kate Brun

8237 Anderson Pl, Harrisburg
From Hwy 49, south on Hickory Ridge Rd 0.5 miles, left on Stallings Road 1.8 miles, right on Quail Hollow Dr, left Jon-Chris Rd, right Anderson Pl

Lucky Leaf Gardens grows organic micro-greens year round! Microgreens are vegetables and herbs at their first stage of growth, after they sprout from seeds, and before they grow their first set of "true leaves." Vegetables grown in this manner contain concentrated levels of nutrients and flavor and serve medicinal purposes.

704-773-9355 luckyleafgardens.com

Dover Vineyards

see East Map

Elizabeth Anne Dover

3220 Concord Pkwy S, Concord
From I-85, Exit 52 east on Poplar Tent Rd, right on Pitts School Rd about 3 miles, left on Hwy 29/Concord Pkwy about 0.4 miles, farm is on left

This 4-acre organically farmed vineyard focuses on Chambourcin and Vidal blanc grapes, with some others planted around for blending purposes. The first vintage will be released in 2012. Also on site are a small vegetable farm and a pumpkin patch.

704-794-2033

Barbee Farms see East Map

Tommy and Anna Barbee

1000 Shelton Rd, Concord
From I-85, Exit 52 east on Poplar Tent Rd 0.1 miles

Barbee Farms is a sixth generation family farm in Cabarrus County and was awarded the 2010 Conservation Farm Family of the Year. The Barbees grow a large variety of products from Apples to Zucchini, and most everything between.

980-521-1395 barbeefarms.net

Peaceful Meadows Farm

Philip and Sheila Brooks

Jeremy and Laura Brooks
1740 Camden Rd, Marshville
From Hwy 74, south on Old Hwy 74 about 0.8 miles, right on Camden Rd, farm is almost 3 miles on right

Two generations of the Brooks family have been raising strictly grass-fed beef without hormones or antibiotics at Peaceful Meadows Farm for 12 years. Although the berries are not in season in September, Peaceful Meadows is also a chemical-free U-pick blueberry farm in the summer months. Come experience what clean and healthy food can look and taste like!

704-506-7826

peacefulmeadowsfarm.com

Windcrest Farm

Mary Roberts and Ray Tarlton

518 Greenfield Dr, Monroe
From Hwy 207, south on Stack Rd about 2 miles, right on E Sandy Ridge Rd about 0.8 miles, left on Greenfield Dr, farm is on right

Windcrest Farm is a certified organic greenhouse and farm offering plants and produce, that grows vegetable, herb, and flower plants for home and market growers, as well as offering classes and supplies to help make your garden successful.

704-764-7746

windcrestorganics.com

Happy Hills Alpaca Farm

Valerie and Kaarlo Hietala

708 Winding Brook Rd, Monroe
From Hwy 207, east on Sally Macfarms Dr about 0.8 miles, left at Griffith Rd about 1 mile, left onto Winding Brook Rd, farm is about 0.3 miles on left

Happy Hills Alpaca Farm is a small farm specializing in alpacas with fine fleece and great conformation. Alpaca fiber is very soft, not scratchy, and hypoallergenic. The alpacas are gentle, love children, and are fun and relaxing to watch. Many alpaca-fleece products and herbal soaps will be on sale.

704-296-9717

Aw Shucks Farms

3718 Plyler Mill Rd, Monroe

Hwy 207 S out of downtown Monroe, second left on Griffith, left on Plyler Mill

Aw Shucks Farms continues to be a treasured destination each fall with something to offer for all ages. Step back in time in the Old Fashioned General Store, enjoy a Hayride, and visit the Pumpkin Patch. The 6-acre Corn Maze is always fun and will entertain even the youngest of outdoor adventurers!

704-709-7000 awshucksfarms.com

Make your next special event gentle on the planet!
www.shadeofgreenevents.com
704-299-1009

What shade of green are you?

just b
davidson

for rates and reservations visit justbdavidson.com